

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

All praise, honor, glory and gratitude be to God. By His grace, the author has been able to complete writing this thesis entitled “Analysis of Indonesia’s Agrarian Reform Policies with regard to the Protection of the Indigenous People’s Rights to their Customary Land”. This thesis aims to fulfill the requirements in obtaining a Bachelor’s Degree in Law at the Faculty of Law of Universitas Pelita Harapan.

The author hopes that this thesis would raise awareness and instill understanding of the ongoing issues pertaining to the adat communities and their ulayat rights in Indonesia. The author also hopes that this thesis can contribute to the resolution of land conflicts and the development of agrarian system and its policies in the state. The blessed completion of this thesis is not fully complete without mentioning the support and assistance of various parties. Therefore, the author would like to thank:

1. Prof. Dr. Bintan R. Saragih, SH, as the Dean of Faculty of Law of Universitas Pelita Harapan.
2. Dr. Vincensia Esti Purnama Sari, SH, M.Hum, as the Head of Faculty of Law of Universitas Pelita Harapan, for helping the author with his class credits matters and document matters as well as giving him another chance at thesis completion.
3. Dr. Velliana Tanaya, S.H., M.H., as the Director of Faculty of Law of Universitas Pelita Harapan, and Chief Examiner to the defense of this thesis, who has given feedbacks for the revisions.

4. Prof. Daryono, S.H., M.A., Ph.D., as the author's thesis supervisor who has attended kindly and patiently to the author's needs in structuring the thesis and, has also helped on the direction of the thesis. Thank you also for the important and useful lessons you have taught us in your class.
5. Miss Catherine Susantio, S.H., M.M, M.Kn., as one of the examiners who also gave inputs for the revisions.
6. Academic counsellor, Ms. Jerry Shalmont, S.H., M.H., for having dealt with classes and credits of the author.
7. All the lecturers and assistant lecturers of the Faculty of Law of Universitas Pelita Harapan, for having taught me insightful materials in their classes.
8. Employees of the Faculty of Law of Universtias Pelita Harapan.
9. My family (dad and mom), for always loving, supporting, and assisting me in my life, as much as they could; they are very significant and valuable to me and, am very grateful to God for giving me them.
10. Erlina K., a beloved cousin of mine, who first introduced me to UPH back in 2014 when I was finding a university to attend.
11. Jeffry, Erlina, William, Erick, Jenna and several more people within our circle of friends of the Glow Youth Thamres back in the day, who were gracious and kind enough to befriend me in 2014, my arrival and stay in Jakarta, and to help me move from Jakarta to Karawaci in 2015.
12. Rilly R., a kind and friendly person, who helped me with the administrative matters as well as showed and recommended me to reside in the MYC Dormitory in 2015, the year I got admitted to UPH; who also gave me good advices since I was admitted to UPH until now when I had finished my Bachelor's Degree.

13. David R, my first friend in the dorm who I found out was also in the same major and class as me, and who became my close confidant and friend until today, with whom I've gone through thick and thin and; had been so patient and helpful to me. He motivated me in many aspects, especially concerning academics.
14. Duresh, one of the other close friends of mine whom I met in the dorm; we would usually hit the gym together and hang out along with David and Algy, who is another friend of mine.
15. Coach Met, my dorm parent, who is also the director of MYC Dorm and Sports Department, and a man of God who has been very patient, kind and adequately forgiving with me throughout the years I have been enrolled and living on campus; I will also say that he has helped me grow as a person. I'm very grateful for him and his family.
16. Ko Hartley, Joshua P., Nicholas C., Calvin S., Kak Daniel and David A., my residence assistant and fellow supervisors back in the day, and friends who had and have been helpful and patient with me. I'm thankful for them and our friendship. Two of them are married, while the rest are still on the surface, not rushing; waiting for the right time of that special soulmate of each respective individual.
17. Eman and Gery, my fellow Manadonese brothers who are also very close to me. One of them is also my confidant. We would be regarded as the ‘three musketeers’, if you will, and would oftentimes go and hangout together places. We got each other’s back; a special kind of friendship. Brotherhood. They have been there for me through thick and thin, as well as very patient and supportive of me. I’m thankful for them and our brotherhood.

18. My MYC Dormitory Residence Assistants and Supervisors colleagues from 2016-2019, a group of young people with whom I shared the opportunity to serve the student residents in the dorm; they have also been supportive of me in many aspects of life.

19. My relatives that have been supportive of me.

The author also would like to apologize for any mistakes on wordings or others that may be present in this thesis. He realizes that it is far from perfection and therefore, is open to constructive criticism and suggestions as well as opinions from all parties. The author hopes that this thesis can be accepted and beneficial to the legal science development.
