

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, the authors would like to express their deepest gratitude to thank God for His grace, guidance and blessings throughout the process of writing this thesis titled, “The Influence of Country-of-Origin’s Factors towards Purchase Intention of Samsung Smartphones on Generation Z in Jakarta-Tangerang, Indonesia.” This thesis is written with the main purpose of successfully completing Sarjana Ekonomi Degree in Management, Universitas Pelita Harapan, Karawaci.

The authors are truly grateful for the guidance, support and prayers of many surrounding individuals; thus, the authors would like to express their deepest gratitude to:

1. Dr. Pauline H Pattyranie Tan, S.E., M.Si., as the Supervising Lecturer for the guidance, patience, insights, advice and encouragement that has helped the authors in writing the thesis.
2. Dr. Sidik Budiono, S.E., M.E., as the head of thesis defense committee for the guidance and feedback during the defense.
3. Daniel Peterson Silaban, S.E., M.M., as the thesis defense committee for the experience, patience and support during the defense.
4. The thesis partners for giving their best effort to accomplish this final project.

5. All business school and FLA lecturers who have taught the authors passionately and imparted valuable knowledge during the authors' study in Universitas Pelita Harapan.
6. Family members and friends for all the support and encouragement given.
7. Each of the respondents who had voluntarily participated to take part in this research and provided their time to answer the questionnaires.

Even though the authors have exerted their best effort to write this thesis, the authors are fully aware that the thesis is still far from perfection. Thus, constructive critics, comments and suggestions would be appreciated to further improve the study.
