

PREFACE

This thesis is written to fulfil the academic requirements to obtain the Bachelor Degree in Social Science in the study of International Relations at Universitas Pelita Harapan. The process in completing this thesis is a long and tough one and I could not have done this without God's help and also the constant support of the people in my life. Therefore, I would like to extend my gratitude to the following people.

1. Praise to God for the constant blessings, strength, knowledge, wisdom, and guidance that He has given to me throughout my life that I am able to finally reach the last stage of my education and complete this thesis the best that I can. Without His guiding hand, this would no longer be possible.
2. My parents, Aswan Widjaja and Chu Dina Darmarta, for their sacrifice in ensuring that I receive the best education they could possibly provide and for equipping me with the discipline, perseverance, and determination needed to face any challenges that come my way, including finishing this thesis and my education.
3. My siblings and my nephews, Arif Putra Kusumah, Darda Clarissa, Zefano Ryuzaki, Zaneaxle Ruizio, Zenolex Riondazel, Giorrando Grissandy, and Felicia Harli for the laughter, support, and love.
4. Dr. Naniek N. Setijadi, S.Pd., M.Si. as the Dean of Faculty of Social and Political Science, and Mrs. Floranesia Lantang, S.H.Int., MNatSecPol. as the Department Chair of International Relations for the opportunity to complete this thesis.

5. Dr. Edwin M. B. Tambunan, S.I.P., M.Si., as my thesis advisor, for his patience, feedback, and support throughout this process. Without his guidance, I would not have been able to complete my thesis and I am eternally grateful that I was placed under his guidance.
6. Prof. Aleksius Jemadu, Ph.D. as my lecturer whose wisdom and knowledge has helped me excel in my studies and have constantly challenged me to become a better and more critical student. The input he and Mrs. Amelia Joan Ribka Liwe, S.S., M.A., Ph.D. as my thesis defense examiners have given me have helped me develop this thesis into a better one.
7. Ms. Karina Putri Indrasari, B.A., M.A. as my academic advisor and lecturer who have always believed and instilled confidence in me that I may continue to improve myself and perform well in university. Even after moving halfway across the world to pursue her own studies, she made sure to check on me and give me the push I need. Her amiability, humor, grit, and wisdom have both inspired and helped me and for that I am forever grateful.
8. Mr. Adri Arlan, S.IP., M.IR. as my second academic advisor and lecturer for his guidance and trust during the last year of my studies at UPH.
9. Tabita Christassia, my best friend since junior high school, who stuck by me throughout my highs and my lows, kept faith in me, consoled me during my breakdowns, kept me accountable for my actions, and have always given me advice on life or even just to pick the right photo to upload to Instagram.
10. Stevany Buntaran, Kezia Aristi, Stephanie Fenuela, and William Yong, Muhammad Alfizar, and Agnes Monica Haryanto for their friendship

throughout my college life. On my saddest days, their jokes and support have managed to help me get back up on my feet and our time and memories together will always be a treasure I cherish eternally. I am grateful that our paths have crossed and I can only hope that we will remain good friends throughout the journey that we will embark upon soon.

11. Hana Irena, one of the first friends I have when I first moved to Sekolah Dian Harapan Daan Mogot who have always kept in touch with me until today. Even if we do not always agree with each other on the small matters and have different tastes, I have always treasured our friendship and your constant support for me and my dreams.
12. My CIS family, Enrico Affabris, Adella Clarabelle, Rio Alessandro, Ferdy Wijaya, Stevany Buntaran, Yerizya Azlou, Irsyad Soedirlan, and Agnes Monica Haryanto, for the fun last few semesters in CIS classes that have helped me cope with the stress and workload that the classes entail.
13. Mrs. Elysia Giovanni Scialom and Mrs. Vania Larissa Pesik for the opportunity to work for their company, for a great first working experience, and for their trust in me. Working for them has helped me expand my capabilities, taught me responsibility, time management, and discipline which are traits I needed to complete this thesis while also working full-time. Although I am not perfect, they have always mentored and guided me with patience and have kept in touch with me after all this time.
14. Mr. Indra Zakharia and Ms. Gabriela Iridi as my superiors at PT Generasi Cemerlang Indonesia who have given me the opportunity and trust to work for their company whilst completing my thesis. I am also grateful to Ms. Allen Glory Devina, Ms. Michelle Cristy Gunawan, Ms. Stephani Laurensia, Ms. Elizabeth Tiffani, and the rest of my colleagues at PT GCI for the constant support. The lessons I have learned from them are priceless and will always be treasured.

15. To the students of the international class of International Relations UPH 2017 who have embarked on this journey together with me. I could not imagine a better group of people to spend my classes with.
16. To my other friends, colleagues, and family who have expressed their support throughout my university years and to all parties who have directly or indirectly helped me complete this thesis.

Lastly, I realize that this thesis is still far from perfect since it still has weaknesses in terms of analysis, so I hope that the reader will read it with discretion and I welcome any input and constructive criticism that can help make this thesis better so that it may be a blessing to others. Please do not hesitate to reach out for any feedback, suggestions, and questions you may have.
