

ABSTRACT

Name : Raymond

NIM : 08120020046

Title : Information System for selling and services

A selling system is a tool for an organization or company to help the business process worked more efficiently, effectively and faster. The system alters manual work into automated work, which will ease the daily business transaction. In this Salon system only the admin who have access to system, because to keep the privacy of salon transaction.

With this database can do inputing, processing data, and producing reports to help persons in charged to get information needed. This selling system in a salon is describing about how a salon sells, not only services but also items. The system does not require a high levelled user, it can be used easily.

(v + 52 pages : 8 tables, 25 pictures + Attachments: 28 pages)

References : 5 (1995-2004)

