

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

To begin with, I would like to thank God for his blessings, kindness and love that is gifted to me, through his blessings I was able to have the motivation and courage in order to complete this thesis in the time of the current global pandemic of COVID-19. The resources and guidance from the blessings of GOD has been the utmost help that was required as well in order to do the thesis in time. With an overwhelming feeling of happiness, I am able to say that the thesis titled as “FACTORS AFFECTING ENJOYMENT AND REPURCHASE INTENTION TO SHOP AT LAZADA” is completed in time which is a requirement to obtain the bachelor’s degree (Sarjana S1) for the Management study program from the Faculty of Economics and Business at Universitas Pelita Harapan. The completion of this thesis is also possible to be completed on time with the contribution and support from the people around me, I would like to show my gratitude by acknowledging to those people who are the following:

1. Dra. Gracia Shinta S. Ugut, M.B.A., Ph.D., as the Dean of the Faculty of Economics and Business at Universitas Pelita Harapan
2. Mrs. Isana S.C. Meranga, S.P., M.M., as the Department Chair of Management
3. Dr. Ir. Evo S. Hariandja, M.M., as AOE of Marketing
4. Ms. Liza Handoko, S.E., M.M., as my Academic Advisor Since 2017
5. Mrs. Isana S.C. Meranga, S.P., M.M., as my dearest thesis supervisor who has dedicated her precious time, patience and knowledge to give me the wisdom, guidance, experience, support and encouragement to finish my thesis.

6. All lecturers and staff in the Universitas Pelita Harapan Business School whom have helped me through this journey of learning in the past 3.5 years
7. To all the respondents who have whole heartedly and willingly took the time and effort to participate in this research
8. To my dearest loving family for all the support, prayers and guidance that they have given to me in this time of me attempting the thesis and also in life which enabled me to be in this position where I am now
9. To all my friends and fellow classmates since 2017
10. To Chelsie who has been a great anchor and motivator, who also was supposed to be in a one group with me for thesis, but we managed to complete this path of the final project individually with the support of each other from time to time
11. To all the friends as well who have been a great help in supporting me in completing this thesis
12. To Richard Mountero, S.T. Thank you so much for the support and allowing me to use your devices when I needed the most.

As the final word, the researcher realizes that this thesis is still far from being totally perfect. In regard to that the researcher gladly welcomes suggestions, critics, insights and opinions. The researcher hopes that this study could be of good use and that it can be beneficial and useful for future studies and informative for the readers.
