

CHAPTER V

CLOSING

A. Conclusion

The execution of the webinar “NEW NORMAL? NO NEED TO WORRY! – Introduction to Food and Beverage Operation and Staff Grooming in the New Normal Era” on 17th December 2020 via Zoom has done well. Participants can attend the webinar well and ask several questions according to the topic being discussed. The material presented can be accepted and applied. The delivery method is also considered clear enough so that it is easy to understand. The execution of activities is also on time. Despite some technical glitches in which the music in the video was muted, the team was able to improvise by explaining in person.

B. Suggestion

Suggestions for each participant so that they can seek more information about the guidelines issued by the government related to reviving tourism and the economy in Indonesia.
