ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In the name of God, the Most Gracious and Merciful. Researcher had completed a research study entitled “Teaching Reading and Writing Literacy to a Dyslexic Student using the Eclectic Approach: A Case Study”.

The researcher is fully thankful and would like to deliver her most gratitude to the amazing people who support in finalizing this thesis to:

1. Connie Raslim, S.S., B.Ed., M.Pd. as Dean
2. Dr. Niko Sudibjo, S.Psi., M.A. as Head of Study Program
3. Agus Santoso, S.Pd., M.A., Ed.D. as the thesis supervisor for his caring, support and embracing guidance. It was a great honor to have Pak Agus as her supervisor.
4. Mrs. Cindiar who allows the researcher to do the research to her child.
5. Her beloved student who were being cooperative during the research conduction. She had learnt a lot from the student.
6. Her supportive husband, Mr. Agus Sugianto and great loveable children, M. Ridho Arya Putra and Anastasya Putri Calista for love and prayer in every step of the way.
7. My beloved mother, Mrs. Win Wahyu Wardhani for the love and prayer that kept her going in completing the thesis.
8. Ogi Wira, Surya, Dwi Reyno and Jessica for the cheers and the supporting systems during the researcher’s study.
9. All staffs in UPH who are always willing to help the researcher during his study.
10. Batch 36 mates, especially the TESOL squad.

11. All the parties who stood by me to support her study.

The researcher understands that this thesis is not perfect and accepts positive feedback and suggestions for improvement. It is hoped that this study will contribute to benefit teachers and learners in acquiring the language acquisition through scaffolding strategies.
