

ABSTRACT

Gabriel Amagadela (01051180001)

(xi + 90 pages)

Land bank is a new policy in Indonesian constitution that contained in the Omnibus Law. Land bank in Indonesia has a same purpose with Pancasila which is the ideology of the country. Land bank is form due to complex land issues that have an impact to Indonesian social welfare. Indonesian land bank is inspired by U.S and Netherlands land bank. This thesis is about land bank in Dignified Justice Theory that was initiated by Prof. Teguh Prasetyo and based on Pancasila which from Indonesian Ideology. It doesn't like other justice theory, Dignified Justice is a justice that comes from God, justice that humanizes human. Dignified Justice has 3 components for the purpose these 3 components are connected to each other and can't be separate. With the perspective from Dignified Justice Theory, it can be a new idea that can be included to the substance of land bank policy. This thesis is using a normative research which is use secondary data from literature study. Then using a comparative study between land bank policy in Indonesia and land bank policy in U.S and Netherlands. Then from both country will be compare with Dignified Justice Theory. The Analysis from this thesis is using deductive method with a qualitative data about the existence from land bank policy in Indonesia with Dignified Justice Perspective. The first analysis is for knowing the existence from historical constitution in Indonesia until the new constitution about land bank. Then, the second analysis is about he land bank in Indonesia if use the perspective of Dignified Justice Theory.

Keywords: Land, Justice, Welfare, Land Bank, Dignified Justice Theory;

References: 34 (1987-2021)