

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Praise be to God Almighty for His grace, wisdom, blessing, and inclusion to the author so that the author is allowed to complete this final project properly and on time.

The final project with the title “THE IMPACT OF GEOPOLITICAL RISK, STATE OWNERSHIP, AND GROUP AFFILIATIONS ON INDONESIAN FIRMS’ CASH RESERVES” was created to fulfill one of the academic requirements to obtain a Bachelor’s Degree in Management (Sarjana Manajemen Strata Satu) at Universitas Pelita Harapan, Lippo Karawaci, Tangerang.

The author understands that this final project could not be completed on time without the guidance, assistance, support, and prayers from various parties. Therefore, the author is incredibly grateful to:

1. Dra. Gracia S. S. Ugut, MBA., Ph.D., as Dean of the Faculty of Economics and Business.
2. Vina Christina Nugroho, S.E., M.M., as Head of the Management Study Program.
3. Dr. Kim Sung Suk, B.A., M.M., as the Head of the Finance Concentration who has provided the author with valuable knowledge and insight during the lecture process at the Finance Concentration. And as the Supervisor of this thesis who is always observant and patient in guiding, assisting, and directing the author, as well as providing various constructive and useful inputs to the completion of this thesis. In addition, the author is filled with gratitude for his extraordinary ideas and guidance during the 7th Indonesian Finance Association International Conference, which earned this paper an award.

4. Rita Juliana, S.E., M.M., MBA., as one of the Finance Concentration Lecturers who has humbly guided the author and helped provide ideas for the topic of this thesis.
5. The author's family consisted of the author's father (Sunanto), mother (Tjhia Siau Khing), and sister (Cindy), who always pray for the author and provide continuous support, love, and motivation to researchers. Specifically to the author's sister (Cindy), who always encourages and sparks the author's motivation in writing this thesis.
6. Christhalia Severesia Chandra as the author's most lovely, most positive, and prettiest best friend who always motivates, encourages and supports the author mentally and in daily activities.
7. Natasha Sulaiman as the most kind and diligent best friend of the author who always gives motivation and affection to the author at all time.
8. The group "Mantep" consisted of Christhalia Severesia Chandra, Willy Djulianto, and Timothy Wiria as the author's comrade-in-arms in the Finance Concentration classes and in writing this thesis.
9. Junior High School friends of the author, namely Verina Silky Wiradinata, Diana Deborah, and Clarita Octaviany, who have always inspired and accompanied each other in writing this thesis.

10. Friends of the author, namely Denise Altur, who always accompanies the author in enjoying the moment in life and making the author's uni-life memorable and full of excitement.
11. All Lecturers of the Universitas Pelita Harapan Management Study Program who have contributed to educating and sharing valuable knowledge and experience for writers during the lecture period.
12. The staff of the Faculty of Economics Management Studies Program who has assisted the author in administrative activities during lectures.
13. Fellow members of the student executive boards (BEM-UPH) 2020/2021, committee members, and 2018 management classmates who cannot be named one by one.
14. All related parties who cannot be named one by one

The author realizes that this final project is not perfect. Therefore, the author is certainly open to criticism, suggestions, and objective input, which can help improve the writing of this final paper. Finally, the author would like to appreciate and wish that this final project can be useful for all readers and future researchers.
