

ABSTRACT

Nicholas Adrian (00000014140)

(xi+62 Pages; 7 Tables; 6 Appendices)

This research examines whether there is association between coffee price, exchange rate, and Gross Domestic Product (GDP) towards The volume of Indonesian coffee export. The primary source of data for this research will be from World Bank, Badan Pusat Statistik (BPS), UN comtrade, Global Economic Monitor (GEM), and Unctad, the data collected 26 years 1990 - 2015. Data collected then processed with Ordinary Least Squared (OLS) using Eviews 10 as the supporting tool. Through the process, data was analyzed and the result are Coffee Price is not significant and has a negative impact, the exchange rate and GDP is significant and has a positive impact towards Indonesian Coffee Export.

Keywords: Export, Coffee Price, Exchange Rate, Growth Domestic Product (GDP), Indonesia Export Coffee Volume.

References: