

community so that students can participate actively. Through this study, researchers also reflect that being a Christian teacher should be beyond than just facilitating the students. Christian teachers need to find out what purpose students get to have true knowledge. Christian teachers as facilitators must be able to facilitate each student with Christ-like love who gives the Holy Spirit to be able to guide us so that we can live according to God's will.

RECOMMENDATION

For Christian English Teacher, it is recommended to know that every student was created by God to be unique and according to His image which has the ratio and reason that God has given, so teachers need to encourage and guide so that each student can maximize every ability they have to can develop knowledge and share it with others. To facilitate the students, teachers also need to know the size of the class so teachers can arrange the grouping well. The teachers also need to prepare the clear goals also prepare some guided questions for the students, so the discussion will run actively but the students also focus on the goals that they need to achieve. Lastly, the teachers need to reflect about the things that need to be improve when facilitating the students through group discussions.
