

PREFACE

First and foremost, all praises to Allah SWT and His blessings for the guidance and opportunities upon me to finish my thesis entitled “Combating Islamophobia: Contrasting definitions, different perspectives, and collaboration between the European Union (EU) and The Organization of Islamic Countries (OIC)” which was written to fulfill the academic requirement in obtaining Bachelor Degree in Social Science from International Relations, Faculty of Social and political Sciences in Universitas Pelita Harapan (UPH). The completion of this thesis or my study process in UPH cannot be separated from the support and help from all the people around me. Thus, with all respect, I would like to extend my gratitude to everyone who have assisted and and encouraging me in completing this thesis including,

1. Mr. Edwin Martua Bangun Tambunan as the Dean of Faculty of Social and Political Sciences, Universitas Pelita Harapan.
2. Ms. Elyzabeth Bonethe Nasution as the Department Chair of International Relations, Faculty of Social and Political Sciences, Universitas Pelita Harapan.
3. Mr. Yosef Djakababa, as my thesis advisor for his patience in giving valuable input, guidance, time, and support for me in finishing this thesis. He keeps me in the right path throughout my writing process, while still giving me the freedom to pursue my research in my way. Without his help, this thesis would have been impossible; thus, I am endlessly grateful for his assistance.

4. Mostly, to my Academic Advisor Mrs Reggiannie Christy Natalia for her guidance, understanding, and most importantly, her positive encouragement and warm spirit for me to finish my study and thesis. It has been a great pleasure and honour to have her as my academic supervisor.
5. The Faculty of Social and Political Sciences lecturers and staffs for their lessons, help, and opportunity to let me finish my study in UPH.
6. My beloved parent, Ayah Dino Dirhamsyah and Bunda Marufah, who have always been praying for me and provide me with the best amenities both in home or when I am alone in Karawaci.
7. My dearest Sister, Zalfa Nabilah who have always been believing in my education potential and ability. Although, throughout my study in UPH, we were apart. However, she still manages to encourage and help me when I am having issues in studying or doing my assignment. She also assisted me in figuring out the best study and writing approach that is suitable for myself. Also, during my writing process, she is the first person to read and give feedback on every chapter of my thesis. Her assistance does not limit only in the writing process or my education, but also throughout my life.
8. Special thanks to Timothy Andrew for his motivation and understanding when I was started to feel like giving up and stressed out during my writing process. He accompanied me in writing this thesis a lot of times.
9. To the most supportive and understanding friends; Carine Gunawan, Namantha Briara, Shahnaz Rafika, Christabela Ananta, and Amelia Mahuze. They have always been there as a support system with the open arms and be the best university companions during my study in UPH.

Thank you for the friendship and love.

10. My precious cousins and nephew; Yasser Arrayan, Dyfia Sharfina, Fadya Sharfina, Nadiah Khaleda, Rafi Raihan, Syaira Farial Rachman, Muhammad Farras Heykal, and Raina Yasmin Haninda. Without their companion of laughter and love, this thesis writing process as well as my study in UPH would be very hard and stressful.

11. Fellow students at HI International class 2016 who have been directly or indirectly helping my study and this writing process.

12. And lastly, all of the people who have not been mentioned one by one but have supported me during my time of study and the process of thesis writings.

After all, I hope that this thesis could be beneficial and useful for the readers and future studies of related topic. Lastly, please do not hesitate to give me any questions, feedback, or suggestions because I welcome any forms of advice or criticism that might be needed in this study.
