ANTECEDENTS AND CONSEQUENCES OF BRAND IMAGE (CASE STUDY ON SOMETHINC BRAND ON TOKOPEDIA AND SHOPEE)

(107 hal + 21 table + 4 picture + 3 attachment)

The beauty product industry in Indonesia has great potential, so it is important for manufacturers to be able to maintain loyal consumers in order to continue to grow. This study aims to examine the effect of social media benefits, social media awards, social media interactivity, and perceived quality on brand image, as well as the effect of brand image on repurchase intention and satisfaction. Likewise, the effect of satisfaction on repurchase intention and brand commitment. This study was conducted quantitatively with a causal approach. This study was conducted on 216 Somethinc consumers obtained using purposive sampling, namely sampling with the criteria of consumers who have used Somethinc products at least once. The results of this study indicate that social media benefits, social media awards, and perceived quality have a significant and positive effect on brand image, while social media interactivity does not affect brand image. The results also show that brand image has a significant effect on repurchase intention and satisfaction, as well as the effect of satisfaction on repurchase intention and brand commitment significantly and positively.
