

FOREWORD

All praise and glory be to God Almighty for his blessings and guidance in everything that this Final Project can finally be completed. The Thesis titled The Representation of Populism in Anies Baswedan's Inaugural Speech is written as a part to fulfill the academic requirements in order to acquire the degree of Sarjana Ilmu Komunikasi Strata Satu Universitas Pelita Harapan, Karawaci.

The Researcher realizes that without the guidance, help, and prayers of a number of parties, this Thesis would not have been completed on time. Because of that, the Researcher would like to express her deepest gratitude to all the parties who have helped in the process of writing the Thesis:

- 1) Prof. Aleksius Jemadu, Ph.D. as the Dean of Faculty of Social and Political Sciences;
- 2) Dr. Naniek N. Setijadi, S.Pd., M.Si. as the Associate Dean of Faculty of Social and Political Sciences and the researcher's chief examiner during her thesis defence, for her valuable insight and suggestions to enrich the research;
- 3) Marsefio Sevyone Luhukay, S.Sos., M.Si., as the Head of Department of Communication;
- 4) Dr. Benedictus A. Simangunsong, S.Ip., M.Si., as the Thesis Advisor who has given countless valuable guidance and advice to the researcher.

The researcher will never forget the wisdom of taking responsibility that you gave to me at my lowest point during the formulation of her Thesis;

5) Sigit Pamungkas, S.T., M.T. as the researcher's lecturer throughout her years in University and second examiner during her thesis defense, for his insightful suggestions to improve the researcher's thesis;

6) Kevin Christian, S.Ikom., as an Assistant Lecturer in the Program Study of Communication Sciences that assisted the collection of administrative processes for the Final Project;

7) The Wantah family: Mom, Dad, Helena, Jon, Wolter, Greg, Kendis, Sikas, Ian, Ursula as the researcher's beloved core support system, all of whom have been very supportive throughout the process;

8) Christie and Della, from the same Advisor group, as the researcher's fellow Thesis warriors who have created a supportive environment, shared in the same struggle, and greatly contributed in the writing process;

9) My people on campus: Abby, Liana, Alex, Nadya, Jojo, Adiez, Adi, Sherni, and Ayat who have all been the best support system to keep me going to classes and eventually helped me gotten this far;

10) All my best and closest of friends: Kassie, Miyuki, Nabila, Farah, Sasqia, Atilla, Tathia, Shavira, Reza, Joshua, Ronaldo, Hilmi, Rangga, Batara, Diva, Nindita, Indigo, Audy, Paulina, Aicha, Evita, Adelline, Kinan—the rock that I can always rely on when times are particularly tough with pushing through to complete my degree;

11) My FPCI family: you know who you all are, there's just too many of you! I can't list you all down one by one. Thank you for being the biggest distraction throughout the process of writing my thesis (in the best way possible).

12) Jakob as the researcher's valuable commie for his constant motivation, nagging, and never-ending support throughout the process of formulating this Thesis. And of course, for introducing me to the Cas Mudde, which subsequently became the main inspiration behind this Thesis;

13) Last but not least, to the researcher herself, for pushing through even when the road ahead seemed bleak.

Finally, the researcher realizes that there still remains a lot of flaws and limitations to this thesis. Hence, constructive critique and feedback from the readers would be beneficial and highly appreciated by the researcher. May this Thesis be useful for all who read it.
