

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Blessed be to the Christ the Lord for only by His grace this part of the author's study is complete. This thesis is aimed to fulfill the requirements to complete the Master in Trade, Investment and Competition Law and Policy, Faculty of Law, Universitas Pelita Harapan, as well as to contribute in study of investment law.

While it has come a longer journey in particular to finish this thesis entitled "Analysis of Investment Policy in Indonesia in Compliance to International Investment Regulations", it couldn't have been done without the relentless prayers and support from parties and loved ones, therefore the author would like to thank:

1. Prof. Dr. Bintan R. Saragih, S.H., Dean of Faculty of Law, the biggest appreciation for encouragement given to pursue take this study in the first place, and who have always support me relentlessly since very beginning to the completion of this thesis writing. Thank you for the time, support, scholarship opportunity, and lapo sessions that have been given to help me complete this study;
2. Dr. V. Henry Soelistyo Budi, S.H., LL.M., Head of Master of Law Department as well as thesis advisor who has mentored me from the beginning of my study, accreditation in between classes, and up until the completion of this thesis;
3. My family and most importantly, my grandparents, for the relentless support and nagging to finish my study. I thank you for the prayers, love, and patience for dealing with me away most part of the days every day and late nights during classes, as well as being secluded in my room intensely for too long already. This thesis, study, and degree is dedicated for you;

4. Timothy Satyaabieza, my ramen connoisseur for his constant companion, cheering, encouragement, support and affection, and the fact that at the end of the line you have dealt with me depressed and endless rant of desperation, my love and gratitude is endless;
5. Erica, Gleny, and Jessica for all the love, tears, and joy we shared since high school as well as the constant consolation given during the writing of this thesis, and everything they had put up with this writer throughout the years and many years to come;
6. Priscilla Alexandra Wakkary, well you survived me since day one of undergrad, my all too receh, not-funny-at-all jokes. Nico Satria Pratama, for visiting Plaza Semanggi on most days for no-question-asked heart-to-heart session on too many things already, may you never be bored with my late night turmoils and forgive my betrayal.
7. Pierre Mauritz Sundah, for every topic discussable straight on to morning, from work to matters of the heart, and Ellora Sukardi, from enrolling, gossip, going through God knows how many accreditations and drama you have been a voice of reason. I am immensely grateful for both of your endearing friendships;
8. The family of Faculty of Law Universitas Pelita Harapan for the prayers, support, and encouragement throughout my study and also for the food and laughter constantly provided. You don't just gain knowledge and degree, but also weight in Faculty of Law, all the love and gratitude. Special shout out to Ibu Esti, who has been a great role model and cheerleader, you have been my mother away from home, to Ci Veve, my work soulmate, I couldn't have done and be where I am without your mentorship and kindness, to Bu Yossi for comfort, friendship, gossip, and intense work ethic you have shown me;

9. Pak Andry Pandjaitan, Tante Tyar, Andre, Ony, Grace, Eren, Hartley, the entire UPH Student Life Department, I've done my fair share of graduations before my own in this entire process with you guys. Every one of you have been the most welcomed distraction and your friendship highly appreciated, perfect with just a little hint of drama;
10. Ibu Connie Rasilim, Bapak Feteriadi, and especially Ibu Maya who has been always supporting from the other end of the phone line, because without the scholarship opportunity granted this would not have happened in the first place;
11. My undergrad students, waiting at UPH Semanggi 3rd floor mates Billa & Pascal who's also advised by Pak Henry; Cerelia who has been an who's been unexpected friend and companion for the last year, thank you for your cheerfulness and motivation; and
12. Administration Staff of UPH Graduate School, who have been an immense support throughout this study.

To conclude, any critics and recommendations would be much appreciated. Hopefully this thesis would be useful to those who read it. Ad Maiorem Dei Gloriam.
