

Acknowledgement

This acknowledgement is dedicated for the people who have supported this author's journey of constructing this thesis titled, "THE EFFECT OF PARTICIPATIVE LEADERSHIP AND FUN EXPERIENCED AT WORK ON EMPLOYEES' JOB SATISFACTION IN THE MARITIME INDUSTRY: WITH THE MEDIATING EFFECT OF WORK MOTIVATION." This thesis is written to fulfil one of the requirements to obtain a degree in Bachelor of Economics (Management) at Universitas Pelita Harapan.

Without the moral support, encouragement, guidance, and prayers of everyone surrounding the author, as well as the knowledge and experiences accumulated from Universitas Pelita Harapan and RMIT University, this final project would not have been completed on time. Therefore, the author would like to use this opportunity and express the highest appreciation and most sincere gratitude for all of those who were involved in the process of completing this thesis:

1. Gracia Shinta S. Ugut, MBA., Ph.D., as the Dean of Faculty of Economics and Business at Universitas Pelita Harapan
2. Isana S. C. Meranga, S.P., M.M., as the Head of the Management Study
3. Juanna Judith Hulisehan SE., MA., Ph. D., as the author's thesis supervisor. Without her guidance and advice, this author was able to complete the thesis on time and with minimal mistakes. My utmost gratitude and appreciation to her.

4. The whole faculty members of Business and Economics of Universitas Pelita Harapan and RMIT University, who have relentlessly pass down their knowledge to this author, paving the way to achieve academic success.
5. The author's family who, without them, none of this would have happened. Their support allows the author to pursue his dreams and studies.
6. Friends who turn into my second family, some went through the same challenges writing this thesis, some stayed on the side and supported the author. Without their constant help and companion, the thesis would not have happened. May we share the journey ahead and always help each other in need.
7. Everyone else not mentioned, who has impacted this author in a positive manner. Thank you.

The author acknowledges this thesis are still filled with errors and flaws, so any comments, criticism, and feedback are welcome. The author hopes this final assignment can pave a new groundwork for future development of research in the maritime industry.
