

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Praise and gratitude to God Almighty for bestowing His grace and blessings in guiding the author in writing this thesis which aims to fulfil one of the requirements to obtain a Bachelor of Law Degree at Faculty of Law Universitas Pelita Harapan. The author hopes that this thesis can contribute to the development of legal science in Indonesia, particularly in regard to the legal protection of the use of famous people's names as a trademark in Indonesia.

It is with such challenging experience in mind that the author can say the supports, guidance, and prayers from the author's family, friends, supervisor, and lecturers were truly invaluable to the author in writing this thesis. Therefore, the author would like to thank:

1. Prof. Dr. Bintan R. Saragih, S.H., as the Dean of Faculty of Law Universitas Pelita Harapan.
2. Dr. Velliana Tanaya, S.H., M.H., as the Director of Faculty of Law Universitas Pelita Harapan.
3. Dr. Vincensia Esti Purnama Sari, S.H., M.Hum., as the Head of Faculty of Law Universitas Pelita Harapan.
4. Yossi Niken Respati, S.H, M.H., as the Deputy Department of Law Universitas Pelita Harapan.
5. To the Author's thesis supervisor, Dr. V. Henry Soelistyo Budi, S.H., LL.M., for the guidance and patience in the making of this thesis. Thank you for your constant help and for being the most important figure in the Author's thesis process.

6. To the Author's moot court coach, Jerry Shalmont, S.H., M.H., for all the knowledge, help, and guidance you have given the team for eight months during preparation for John H. Jackson Moot Court Competition 2019-2020. Thank you for giving me the strength as well as encouragement, for dedicating your time and energy for the team, and for taking care of us after our work hours.
7. To the Author's most valuable people, Papi and Mami, for their unconditional and endless love, support, and encouragement throughout my life. Thank you both for believing in me and giving me the strength in my whole journey in law school to chase my dream. I am forever indebted to my parents for giving me all the experiences that have made me who I am now.
8. To Author's sisters, Kartika Ruby Angela and Tania Rosa Hartanty, who have always supported me and given me encouragement whenever I am doubtful.
9. To Author's soulmates since elementary school, Kezia Novita Sidhi, Olivia Bianca Djajadi, and Gabrielle Torino, for always being around through countless ups and downs. Thank you for all the laughter you have given for these past 10 years, and hopefully for many years to come.
10. To Author's precious best friends in law school, Olivia Karlina, Jannah Mumtaza, and Arianne Kumara, for being my favorite company for 4 years and for being the reason I look forward to class. Thank you for all the countless love, laughter, and for being my support system throughout law school. This journey would not have been possible and enjoyable without you.

11. To Author's boy friend, Erland Tjungdiarta Krisen, for being there to lessen the stress during this law school journey and in making this thesis. I am deeply thankful for your existence.

12. To Author's thesis partners Aisha Suny and Rachel Angela who have been in this thesis making process together from the beginning. Thank you for being there whenever I am in a state of confusion and needed help, making the writing process of this thesis slightly bearable.

13. To Author's UPH WTO 2020 teammates, Jannah Mumtaza and Felicia Himawan, for making eight months of researching crayfish memorable. Although we got covided, I am always grateful for all the support you have given and for this moot court experience together.

The Author realizes that there are still many shortcomings in this Final Project and would like to apologize beforehand for any mistakes. The Author welcomes any criticism and suggestions from readers which will be very useful for the author and hopes this thesis would be helpful for all readers.
