

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This literary piece is created to complete the requirements in achieving the title of Bachelor in Universitas Pelita Harapan, Karawaci, this literary article is created only by the grace of almighty God, that has given me wisdom and sense to complete the thesis An Analysis of Intangible Compensation in Regard to Law No 2 of 2012 Regarding Acquisition of Land for Public Purposes.

On behalf of this the writer would like to give thanks towards several important supportive parties who have directly or indirectly assisted in this writing

1. Prof. Dr. Bintan R Saragih SH, Dean of Faculty of Law
2. Dr. Veliana Tanaya, S.H., M.H, Director of Administration of Faculty of Law
3. Dr.V. Esti Purnama Sari, M.Hum, Head of the study program of the Faculty of Law.
4. Yossi Niken Respati, S.H., M.H Vice of the study program of the Faculty of Law.
5. Prof. Daryono SA, M.H., P.h.D
6. The family for which through these hard times has worked tirelessly and thanklessly in order to provide safety, security and comfort of which without this thesis would not be completed
7. The writers' friends for which competitive spirit and advice as well as companionship has been provided for which the writer is given the strength and energy to continue writing this Thesis
8. And almighty God for giving the writer the inspiration, knowledge and strength to carry out the writing of this thesis, of which without his grace such as task would not be possible

This thesis was created for the purposes of exploring certain elements within the Indonesian legal culture and thus in order to ensure its quality as a serious think piece, advice and criticism is needed and expected in order to perfect the thesis. It is only hope that eventually this thesis would serve to help assist in developing the ever-expanding legal scene in Indonesia.
