

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Praise and gratitude I pray to God Almighty who has given Him and his mercy and grace to me so that I can write a thesis with the title "THE PROTECTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS FOR WOMEN WORKERS TO WEAR JILBAB IN THE WORKPLACE FROM THE EYES OF ILO CONVENTION NO. 111 AND ITS IMPLEMENTATION IN INDONESIA". This thesis was made in purpose to fulfill the academic requirements to get Bachelor of Law Degree in Universitas Pelita Harapan, Faculty of law and to provide knowledge for readers who need it. During the process of writing this thesis, the author received a lot of help from various parties. In particular, the author would like to thank:

1. To Prof. Dr. Bintan R. Saragih, S.H., as the Dean of the Faculty of Law Universitas Pelita Harapan for his utmost consideration and guidance to every student.
2. To Dr. Vincensia Esti Purnama Sari, S.H., M.Hum., as the Head of Faculty of Law Universitas Pelita Harapan for her continuous support.
3. To Dr. Velliana Tanaya, S.H., M.H., as the Director of Faculty of Law Universitas Pelita Harapan for her guidance.
4. All Lecturers and secretariat staff of the Faculty of Law, Universitas Pelita Harapan who have taught and shared knowledge, and assisted in all activities carried out by the author during the lecture period.
5. To Dr. Flora Dianti, A.M.d., S.H., M.H., as an Advisor who has taken the time to provide new thoughts on the topic in this research and provide direction during the preparation of this Final Project.

6. The author's best friends who are under one lecturer in the research methodology course, namely Athala Aulia, Stephanie Casily, Meldea Maudy, Flores Mae, Dhena Deandra, Malika Rajan and Aldridge Ditto Iskandar who always provide information during guidance, encourage each other, and help the author to stay positive in writing this thesis.
7. Friends who have worked together with the author in organizations, communities, work, services, during school, and friends who have struggled together to pursue a law degree at Pelita Harapan University, especially the 2018 International Law class and HMFH UPH.
8. The author's parents who have always been there for the author and finance the author's college which became the spirit and motivation of the author to get a Bachelor of Laws degree.
9. The speakers are Mariam Benazir and Zhania who help provide a perspective from the worker's side and provide references for the author's writing sources.
10. The author's comrades in arms who are under one supervisor, namely Feline Budiman and Celia Feren, who always provide news during guidance, encourage each other, and help the author to stay enthusiastic in writing this thesis.

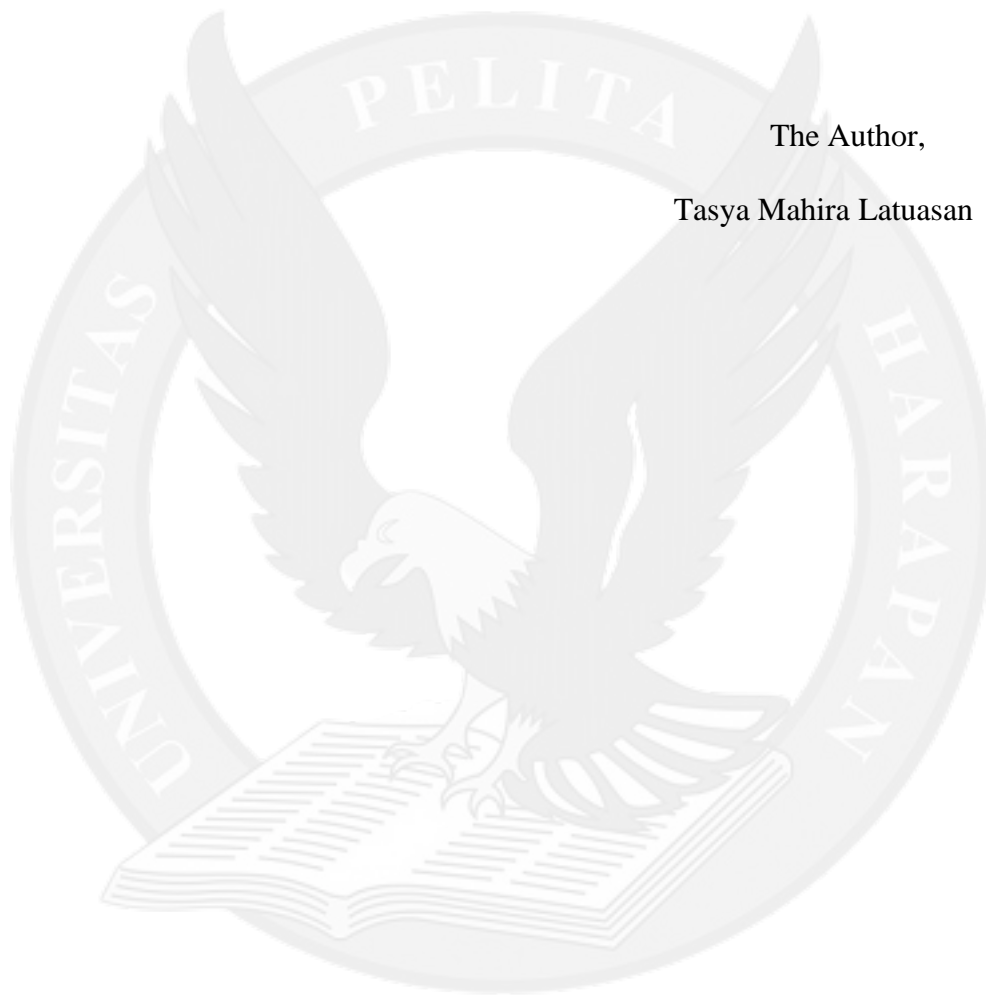

Furthermore, the author would like to thank you for having the opportunity to write this thesis. Please note that the author is open to any kind of constructive criticism given by the audience. The author hopes that from this thesis, the author can provide an updated view of Indonesian law and advance the legal system in Indonesia.
