

References

Teacher. (2017, November 8). Engaging Students in Conversations with See-Think-Wonder. Aquila.

<https://www.aquilaeducation.com/single-post/2017/11/08/Engaging-Students-in-Conversations-with-See-Think-Wonder>

Male, H., Angelianawati, L., & Sudirman, A. (2021). A Study of Students Online Reading Habits and Preferences. D E G R E S, 20(1), 172–183. <https://doi.org/10.1877/degres.v20i1.57>

Niyibizi, E., Sibomana, E., & Perumal, J. (2019). The Wellspring Foundation for Education, Kigali, Rwanda. Reading & Writing -Journal of the Reading Association of South Africa, 2079–8245. <https://doi.org/10.4102/rw>

Visible Thinking Routine of the Week: See-Think-Wonder. (2020, January 1). Thinking Museum. <https://thinkingmuseum.com/2020/01/01/see-think-wonder-visible-thinking/>

Brooks, A. W., & John, L. K. (2018, May). How to Ask Great Questions. Harvard Business Review. <https://hbr.org/2018/05/the-surprising-power-of-questions>

IDENTIFYING AND ANALYZING ARGUMENTS. (n.d.). <https://library.wlu.ca/sites/default/files/pdfs/tutorials/identifyingarguments.pdf>

Video Link for The Interview on The Importance of Critical Thinking. https://uph365-my.sharepoint.com/:v:/g/personal/js70013_student_uph_edu/EVzCFIk-HbtCnFwUApIQOokBlncQdaBo1P6_O3CYQ_uBVA