STUDY OF THE ROLE OF THE MARKETING COMMUNICATIONS DIVISION IN CARRYING OUT MARKETING PUBLIC RELATIONS STRATEGIES AT PT ENWAN MULTI PARTINDO

(xiv + 8- pages: 15 pictures; 22 attachments)

Keywords: Marketing Communications, Marketing Public Relations, Key Opinion Leader

The Marketing Communications Division has a significant role in carrying out the Marketing Public Relations strategy by involving Key Opinion Leaders. They are responsible for identifying Key Opinion Leaders relevant to the company's industry and building good relationships with them. Companies that utilize public relations marketing strategies are PT Enwan Multi Partindo which is an automotive distributor company for two-wheeled vehicles. In carrying out marketing, interesting content and a good communication strategy are needed to achieve company targets.

In carrying out the Internship Practice, Interns are placed in the Marketing Communications Division which plays an important role in developing interesting and relevant content for Key Opinion Leaders, as well as planning collaboration activities that involve them. The purpose of carrying out internships in the Marketing communications Division is to find out the involvement of Key Opinion Leaders in Marketing Public Relations strategies that help increase company exposure, expand public reach, and strengthen brand image. Interns have gained a deep understanding of the importance of Key Opinion Leader involvement in Marketing Public Relations strategy and the role played by the Marketing Communications Division in executing that strategy. The implication of this internship is that PT Enwan Multi Partindo can continue to improve cooperation with Key Opinion Leaders and leverage their influence to achieve the company's marketing goals.
