Additionally, this research explores the impact of customer engagement on repurchase intention and electronic word-of-mouth (eWOM) intention. Using the Partial Least Squares-Structural Equation Modeling (PLS-SEM) method, data from 215 respondents were analyzed to test the causal relationships between variables. The findings reveal that community has the most significant influence on customer engagement, while interactivity does not show a significant effect. Customer engagement was found to have a positive and significant impact on both repurchase intention and eWOM intention. This study provides valuable insights for companies to optimize digital marketing strategies through social elements on the TikTok platform.
